The date of the wedding of Miss Rebecca Meador and Mr. Grover Dunn, of Westmoreland, Kansas, is set for Tuesday, September 21. Details of the wedding arrangements are not yet made.

Miss Welby is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Welby, of 1242 Western avenue. She is a Washburn graduate and a Kappa Alpha Theta sorority girl. She has taken post graduate work at Harvard summer school and in the Kansas State Agricultural college.

Mr. Dunn was a Washburn graduate and a Phi Delta Theta fraternity man. He is now county attorney of Pottawatomie county.

Miss Welby will be honor guest at some pre-nuptial affairs, the first of which is a party to be given tonight by Miss Ruth Bauer, at which Miss Welby will share honors with two other guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Searle and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Searle, who have been at the lakes in Wisconsin, have gone to Geneva, Ohio, to attend the marriage of Miss Beulah Searle and Mr. Warren Crumline.

The marriage will take place Thursday, September 2, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Searle. The event will be an elaborate affair, with a good many guests and a large bridal party. Miss Crumline is to be one of the bride's attendants. Miss Searle is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Searle, and she made her home with them while she attended Washburn college two years.

Mr. Crumline and his bride will go to Boston after the wedding, and later they will come to Topeka to remain a few weeks before leaving for the western coast. They will sail from San Francisco for Shanghai, China, where they will make their home. Mr. Crumline will be manager of a business house in Shanghai.

Miss Ruth Bauer will have guests tonight at bridge, for two of the autumn brides, and an out of town visitor. The honor guests are Miss Katherine Dolman, who will be married to Mr. Frank Davis, of Kansas City, Miss Rebecca Welby, whose engagement to Mr. Grover Dunn, of Westmoreland, is announced, and for Mrs. George Ahlborn, of Washington, D. C., formerly Miss Helen Roehr, of Topeka.

Other out of town guests at the party will be Mrs. Grove Dolman, of Ray, Arizona, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willard; Mrs. Harold Bozell, of Norman, Okla.; and Miss Elizabeth Moore.

The company will include the members of Miss Bauer's bridge club and some other friends.

Looped up skirts and rather tight-fitting bodies have been adapted from peasant costumes in Europe, though the modern costume never shows the bright colors of peasant raiment. This new trotter frock of heliotrope cashmere is looped up to show a striped silk skirt in heliotrope and white. A touch of the silk appears on the bodice, which is further trimmed with bands of violet ribbon velvet.

Miss Marguerite Lovewell, who has been guest of honor at numerous parties in the past two weeks, good-bye affairs before her departure for the east, was entertained at an afternoon at bridge by Miss Joy Paxton. There were six tables. Miss Lovewell wore a light blue tulle gown with shirred skirt and blouse in jacket effect, gathered close at the waist. The sleeves and vest were of chiffon and net. Miss Louise Buck of Traverse City, Mich., who is in Topeka for an extended visit, was one of the guests. She wore a brown silk crepe suit. The blouse was of net and lace, embroidered in gold threads, and worn with a circle of Roman silk. Her shoes were bronze, and she carried a hand bag of brown suede. Miss Julia Larimer wore dark blue silk combined with net and chiffon.

Miss Mary Dallas, of Washington, D. C., will arrive the end of the week to visit Miss Willa Rodgers, and other Topeka friends. Miss Dallas spent the summer in Wray, Colo., with her grandmother, Mrs. P. C. Campbell. Miss Dallas lived in Topeka at one time, and she visited here within the year.

The Sixth District Federation of Women's clubs will have its annual meeting in Goodland, Kansas, September 22 and 23. Representation from the clubs to the district federation is as follows: the president or her proxy, and one delegate for every ten members.

Miss Lois Chambers, of Boston, who formerly attended Washburn College, and is in Colorado Springs this summer, gave a house party for the following Kappa Kappa Chi girls of Washburn: Miss Mildred Gephart, Miss Florence Hoover and Miss Cora Kilbourn.

Miss John Dawson returned Sunday from an extended trip to the Pacific coast. She visited the two fairs, and spent some time with friends in California. She was the guest of Mrs. E. H. Bowman, who lives at El Cajon, about twenty miles from San Diego. Mrs. Bowman formerly lived here, and her friends will be glad to know that she is happily located in California. Mrs. Dawson was the guest of friends in California and in Salt Lake City and stopped in Denver on her way home.

Peggy Lovewell is in Hutchinson visiting her grandmother Mrs. Lillian Sawyer, and her aunt, Miss Lillian Sawyer, who gave a party for her Saturday. The other guests were: Alvena Hulis, Mabel Hulis, Ruth Zimmerman and Louis Zimmerman all of Topeka, Claudia Morgan, Melinda Crotts, Mildred Hutton, Frances Coe, Jessie Williams and Elizabeth Stumm.

The regular meeting of the West Side Forestry club was held at the home of Mrs. D. H. Forbes in Polk street. Mrs. J. F. Close was assistant hostess. Mrs. Harry Forbes read a paper on Washburn Campus, and Professor W. A. Harshbarger spoke on the work of the Washburn Campus association. The club is considering the plan of planting a row of trees on the campus.

The house was decorated in roses, California poppies, cosmos, and nasturtiums, and Miss Ruth Mitchell, of Waverly, Ill., furnished music, singing two solos.

Guests of the club were: Professor Harshbarger, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. A. Reinisch, Mrs. Roy Bone, Miss Ruth Mitchell, Miss Edna Corbet and Miss Martha Valentine.

Miss Frances Beatrice Dehoney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dehoney, and Mr. Thomas J. O'Mara, were married Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at the Church of the Assumption by the Rev. Father McInerney. Miss Maude Butler and Mr. Wallace Casey were attendants. Mr. and Mrs. O'Mara have left for a trip to Excelsior Springs, and after their return to Topeka they will live at the Devon. Mr. O'Mara is a telegraph operator of the Associated Press in Topeka.

The very newest thing in the line of sport suits are those like the one here shown—of white gabardine, bound with navy blue satin. The loosely belted coat is bound with the blue on revers, sleeves and basque portion; white ivory buttons trim the brim, slightly lifted on the left side and is trimmed in two black braids placed together, from between which springs a fan like spray of feathers.

Traveling in the far east for pleasure in these troubled times is not so easy. The passport obtained by Mr. Warren Crumline, the young bridegroom who is to take his bride to China to live, carries with it some formidable looking documents from Washington, which declare that the holder of the passport must be making the trip for business and not for pleasure. (It contains no clause about combining the two.) The description of the holder of the passport is very minute, giving all the details of weight, height, complexion, etc., and then in addition his picture has to appear along with the description. Strange to say, although the passport is made out for the man and his wife, no description of the woman is required. She has not even the honor of being photographed for the passport. Women may not be of very much importance in China, but they tolerate no such neglect as that in Kansas, betcher life.

The marriage of Miss Marcia Murdock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Murdock, of Wichita, to Lieut. Harvey Delano, U. S. Navy, was the event of importance in Wichita Saturday. It took place at 4 o'clock in the Murdock home. The Rev. Harley B. Marnott, of the Episcopal church, read the service. Before the ceremony, Rafael Navas, pianist, played a musical program, and the bride party entered during the playing of the Mendelssohn march. Katherine Murdock, the bride's sister, came first in the procession and carried a garden hat of flowers. Miss Constance Smith, who was a schoolmate of Miss Murdock at the Georgetown convent, was one of the bride party. The bride wore a gown of white lace with a tulle veil. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and lilacs of the valley, and her bouquet was sweet peas and Valley lilies.

Mr. Robert L. Harter of Winfield, who attended the naval academy with the bridegroom, was his best man. A Wichita paper says of the affair: "Miss Murdock graduated from the Western high school in Washington, and later spent two years abroad. The next winter she was introduced to Washington society, where she at once became a favorite. Her personality, her rare sense of humor, and her cleverness form a combination which at once drew about her many interesting friends. She was considered one of the prettiest girls introduced this year in Washington, being especially noted for her Titian coloring."

"Lieutenant Delano is the son of Mrs. M. Delano, of Murphysboro, Ill., and comes from a very old and well-known eastern family. He is now aide to the admiral of the Asiatic fleet. He is a graduate of the United States naval academy at Annapolis."

"Lieutenant and Mrs. Delano left Wichita last evening for San Francisco, and from there will sail on September 4 for Shanghai. En route they will stop in Honolulu and Japan. They will remain in Shanghai two years."
